

Library Mission Statement:

With over a century of service to the Greater Utica Area, The Library remains dedicated to providing information and learning experiences throughout our diverse community.